CPD Program - Inflamed Airways, Informed Decisions: Managing LRTIs with Precision

A Continuing Professional Development (CPD) Initiative

 Darjeeling, West Bengal

 3th - 5th April 2026

Welcome Letter

Dear Doctor,

Warm greetings from CPD Gurukul.

We are pleased to invite you to a focused Continuing Professional Development program titled: Inflamed Airways, Informed Decisions: Managing LRTIs with Precision.

This destination CPD program will take place in the scenic hill town of Darjeeling, West Bengal, from 3–5 April 2026, with the scientific academic session scheduled on 4 April 2026.

Lower respiratory tract infections remain among the most frequently encountered clinical conditions in routine practice. Increasing antimicrobial resistance, evolving microbial patterns, and overlapping clinical presentations require physicians to adopt precision-driven diagnostic and therapeutic strategies.

This program is designed to provide physicians with practical insights into rational antibiotic selection, stewardship principles, and precision-guided clinical decision-making in LRTIs.

Set in the tranquil Himalayan setting of Darjeeling, the program also offers a valuable opportunity for peer interaction, networking, and meaningful professional exchange among physicians from different regions.

We look forward to welcoming you to an enriching academic and experiential CPD program.

Warm regards,

Dr. Sunil Pandey

Director – Medical Affairs

CPD Gurukul

Academic Focus of the CPD

This CPD initiative is designed to provide practical clinical clarity in the management of lower respiratory tract infections.

Key academic themes include:

- Understanding airway inflammation in respiratory infections
- Differentiating viral and bacterial lower respiratory infections
- Precision-guided antibiotic selection for LRTIs
- Optimising antibiotic duration and escalation strategies
- Integrating antimicrobial stewardship into routine clinical practice

CPD Significance

Precision in Practice: Strengthens diagnostic clarity using clinical, laboratory, and imaging insights.

Rational Prescribing: Encourages evidence-aligned antibiotic therapy and stewardship.

Outcome-Focused Care: Supports individualised treatment strategies to improve patient outcomes.

Peer Collaboration: Facilitates exchange of real-world clinical experience among physicians.

Enriched Destination Experience

Beyond academic learning, this CPD program offers physicians a destination learning experience in the Himalayan hills of Darjeeling.

Participants will enjoy:

- Focused scientific discussions in an inspiring environment
- Informal networking with clinicians from different regions
- Meaningful peer interaction beyond the lecture hall
- A refreshing academic retreat in the mountains

Networking and Peer Exchange

The three-day program allows physicians to connect beyond the scientific session.

Highlights include:

- Informal faculty-delegate interactions
- Peer discussions on real-world clinical challenges
- Cross-regional exchange of clinical insights
- Professional networking among physicians from multiple specialities
